

JOHNSON.

O. B. Landon has been in Buffalo the past week.

James Malavin from Milton was in town Monday.

David Holdridge is building a new silo on his farm.

Mrs. H. F. Boyes is visiting relatives in Burlington.

Dr. G. E. Goodwin has moved into his house on Railroad St.

Miss Rollins visited her home in Cabot last Saturday and Sunday.

Harvey Beecher took advantage of the excursion rates for a trip to N. Y.

Miss Carrie Campbell from New York city is visiting relatives in town.

Misses Edith and Ada Peck are the happy possessors of a new Cameo piano.

Miss A. A. Leslie of Lowell, Mass., is in town with a fine line of millinery goods.

Ben Butler, who has been working in Danvers, Mass., for some time is at home.

Madison Sargent has moved into Mrs. Goodwin's house vacated by the Ladukes.

Miss Lucy Bailey from Morrisville visited her sister, Mrs. Smith Hebb, last week.

W. F. Waters and wife have returned from a week's visit at the Pan-American.

W. F. Sinclair and wife left here Saturday for their new home in Dorchester, Mass.

The Ladies Circle meet next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Fred Prindle.

Bert Baker and wife of Jeffersonville visited at the home of William Patten Monday.

Mrs. E. M. Seymour, who has been quite ill for the past few weeks, is somewhat better.

Prof. G. C. Gould attended a class reunion at Burlington last Saturday, returning Monday.

Prue Boyes has returned home after spending several weeks with friends at Queen City Park.

George Wells from Vermont University occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church last Sunday.

Albert Patten and wife of Cambridge visited their niece, Mrs. Morris Hill, last Saturday.

H. T. Chase from Cambridge and T. Blaisdell from Lyndonville were in town over Sunday.

Henry Porter and wife visited Mr. Porter's sister, Mrs. Will Hayford, of Fairfax last week.

David Bullock and wife of West Milton visited at the home of George Livermore last week.

Miss Lucy Church visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Bellows, of Wolcott last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Eugenia Greene and Mrs. Mary Morgan visited Mrs. H. Stowe in Morrisville last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ferrin of Montpelier were guests at the home of O. W. McFarland last week.

Judge Hastings from Waterford visited his daughter, who is a student in the Normal, last week.

Chas. Sullivan of St. Albans visited his daughter, Nellie, who is a student in the Normal, last week.

J. A. Pearl and wife and C. F. Farrington and wife started Tuesday for the Buffalo Exposition.

Miss May Hammond of Burlington has been the guest of Mrs. O. M. McFarland during the past week.

Mrs. Fred Hawley and Mrs. Joel Partlow from Morrisville visited at Joel Partlow's last Saturday.

C. C. Rogers is having new chimneys laid on his house. William Hebb of Jeffersonville is doing the work.

Misses Mary Messer and Ella Centerbar of Enosburg visited the latter's sister, Martha, the first of the week.

Mrs. Harriet Wiswell formerly from this place was married last Thursday to William Page of Hyde Park.

Mrs. Charlotte McFarland, who has been taking quite an extensive western trip, returned home last Friday.

I. M. Powell, wife and daughter of Cambridge visited Mrs. Powell's mother, Mrs. Wm. Patten last week.

Miss Ada Prior, who graduated from the Normal last June has returned and is taking the higher course.

Miss Bessie Gates from Berkshire visited her friends, Mrs. Frank Holmes and Miss Luella Leslie, recently.

D. L. Terrill and wife from Tallapoosa, Ga., spent Saturday and Sunday with their cousin, Mrs. Mary Morgan.

L. W. Fletcher is making quite extensive repairs on a house he recently purchased of H. Miller, on Lower Main street.

Miss Emma Fortier of No. Brookfield, Mass., was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Abram Nolan, last Thursday and Friday.

Miss Dorothy Gates, who has been at Sugar Hill, N. H., through the summer, was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Leslie over Sunday.

Will Collins is moving into the upstairs tenement of the house vacated by Dr. Goodwin. F. C. Bicknell has rented the lower one.

Mrs. Laduke and children have gone to Burlington. Mr. Laduke will go later and the family will make that place their home.

A ball game was played here Saturday between the town and the High School teams resulting in favor of the former with a score 8 to 9.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jones started Tuesday for Brandon and from there,

HOT TEA BISCUIT

Royal Baking Powder

Perfect, Delicious,
Appetizing.

in company with Mrs. Jones' brother, and wife will go to New York, combining business and pleasure.

The death of Mrs. Tillotson occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Luman Stratton, last Wednesday. Mrs. Tillotson had been ill for some time and the autopsy revealed the existence of several cancers in the stomach.

Mitchell Sherbert had a horse killed by the cars last week. It was confined in an enclosure near the track and in some way the gate was left open and the horse got out and on to the track just as the train came along.

Mrs. Horace Goodwin narrowly escaped severe injuries last Thursday. She stepped into a chair to reach something from the wall when one of the chair legs broke throwing Mrs. Goodwin backwards onto a pile of wood. She was unconscious for some time, but no serious results have since developed.

Silas Griswold met with a very severe accident last Wednesday. He was riding a bicycle down this side of Eden Mills when the handle bars broke throwing him forward and striking his chin with all his weight on the broken handle bar and then struck on his face in the stoney road. The chin and upper lip were nearly torn from his face and whole face dreadfully lacerated. He was brought home and Dr. Prentiss dressed the wounds, which are very serious. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Griswold and his family.

STOWE.

Mrs. John Latuch is at home from Boston.

Mrs. Tom Russell of "Nebraska" is quite ill.

B. D. Hawkins of Windsor was in town Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Carey has been visiting in Colchester.

George Carver of Newbury is in town for a few days.

Miss Madge Edson is at home from the White Mountains.

Warner Nelson returned from Sugar Hill, N. H., last week.

E. G. Hutchins is in town from St. Albans for a few days.

Mrs. C. D. Bruce was a visitor in Waterbury Thursday.

Archie Wade invites his friends to a hawking bee Thursday evening.

J. M. Miles of Burlington was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Clough of Waterbury has been a recent guest of Mrs. C. D. Bruce.

Bert Dillingham of Moscow has been visiting B. L. Shaw at Dover, N. H.

L. C. Moody and wife of Waterbury were guests at E. K. Hale's Sunday.

The Ladies Aid of Unity church will meet at the church Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. T. E. Smith is in New York this week purchasing a new stock of millinery goods.

Joe Latuch has been suffering for some time with a very bad eye, the result of neuralgia.

Chas. Tabor of New York City has been a recent guest of his mother at Four Winds Farm.

A. C. Slayton, Mrs. B. P. Gates and Homer Stearns are visiting the Pan American Exposition.

An oyster supper will be held at the Methodist church Friday evening of next week. All are invited.

Miss Kate Kenfield of Boston has been visiting in town for a couple of weeks, going home Monday.

Felix Wells is spending a balance of a two weeks vacation at home, after a week at the Pan American.

Elroy Billings, one of Stowe's most promising young men, has just entered the University of Vermont.

Miss Anna Brackett has closed her residence here for the summer and returned to her New York home.

C. D. Newhall of Barre was in town last week and set a handsome monument for Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hart.

The Sylvander Poor farm in Stowe Hollow has been purchased by Frank Ladd of Waterbury, consideration $4000.

Samuel Reed has been very ill of late with a complication of troubles and his recovery is regarded as improbable.

C. D. Gibbs is having a barber shop and bath room fitted up in the depot block. Mrs. T. E. Smith's millinery store will be changed to the rooms formerly occupied by B. L. Shaw.

As a result of a visit by State's Attorney Cheney Monday afternoon, the local barber shops will be closed on Sunday.

Miss Vira Smith is spending a few in New York. Her place at Miles, McMahon & Co's store is being filled by Miss Myra Luce.

An organization meeting of the newly organized lodge of the I. O. O. F. will be held at Grand Army Hall Saturday evening.

Miss Bemis, who has made Stowe her headquarters while giving music lessons through the summer, goes to Newbury Thursday.

Lamb's Comedians are giving entertainments at Town Hall the first three nights of this week. The company is well spoken of.

C. D. Gibbs and J. A. Kellogg spent Sunday in Montpelier. Mrs. Kellogg, who is receiving treatment by Dr. Brock at Montpelier, is reported as much improved.

Mrs. George Wilkins, Mrs. A. H. Slayton and Miss Lizzie Swift were in Burlington a portion of last week. Mrs. Wilkins has entered a sanatorium for a few weeks.

J. J. Vearen contemplates installing a chair factory at his Lower Village water power. John is a hustler and it is hoped that the scheme will materialize, as it would add much to the business growth of the town.

Selden Adams, Fred Gale and Ernest Hartson husked and measured 75 bushels of corn in 5 1/2 hours last Wednesday night for Ira Chamberlain. Chamberlain said the corn was not hardly cold Thursday morning when he went out to milk.

Mrs. Louisa Loomis met with a serious accident Sunday evening while driving down the steep hill near the Forks and north of Homer Stearns'. In some manner the carriage was overturned and Mrs. Loomis thrown out, receiving a severe shock. The carriage was wrecked.

David and Winfred Sweetzer painted the town a vivid shade of crimson Saturday night as a result of gazing too long upon the wine when it was red. After sobering up sufficiently to realize their condition the pair fled to the wilds of Peacham, leading Sheriff Burt, a merry chase before their capture. When brought into police court Monday, Winfred was fined $20 and costs or $41.50 in all and David $5 and costs of $22.50 or an alternative sentence of fifteen days in jail which latter he accepted.

A Harvest Service will be held at Unity church next Sunday morning at 10:45. Subject of the sermon will be "Sowing and Reaping." The Grangers have accepted the invitation extended to them by the pastor to be present and participate in the service. The church will be decorated and good music rendered. The evening service of The Young People's Fraternity will be in harmony with the spirit and thought of the day. It will be conducted by Mrs. H. W. Barrows and Mrs. L. L. Harris. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

GARFIELD.

Miss Emma Larabee, who has been attending school in Johnson, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Davis visited their daughter, Mrs. F. B. Noble in Hyde Park Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peck are in No. Wolcott keeping house for A. N. Boynton's people during their absence in Buffalo.

Mr. Chas. Prentiss, who bought a farm of C. B. Swift last summer, is having extensive repairs made on the house. Geo. Horner is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Munson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Munson of Westford are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Jackson and other relatives in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hull and son, N. H. Hull were called to East Fairfield the first of the week to attend the funeral of C. B. Beale, a son-in-law of Mr. Hull.

ELMORE.

E. E. Silway and wife are visiting at N. N. Silway's.

A son arrived at W. A. Spaulding's Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. C. R. White has been visiting a few days in Calais.

Our pastor exchanges pulpits with Rev. Mr. Barnard of Wolcott next Sunday morning.

Quite a time for moving now. Sam Eddell is moving from Mr. Richardson's farm to Mr. Stowell's place, just vacated by John Fitzgerald.

Mrs. E. B. Richardson celebrated her 72d birthday. She is the smartest woman in town, both physically and mentally. Her memory is as accurate as that of any young person.

BELVIDERE CENTER.

Edgar Potter is much better.

H. W. Chappell was at home the past week.

Charles Barnard is moving into Billing's boarding house.

Mrs. Mabel Foster and son, Lester, were the guests of Mrs. Will Rich over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Potter are very happy over a son born the 20th. Congratulations are in order.

Will Rich and three children, Maud, Herbert and Eugene are visiting his brother, Robert Rich, in Milton this week.

WESTFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller spent Saturday last in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Orange White of Albany visited in town recently.

Miss Nora Wakofield of Lowell visited Miss Ada Brown Saturday last.

Thursday, Sept. 19, all places of business were closed from 2 to 5 p. m., in honor of the late President.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Johnson of Manchester, N. H., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Johnson.

Vanish Miller of Richmond and Arnold Edwards of Manchester visited at the home of Wm. Edmunds a few days last week.

Edmund Jackson and wife of Hardwick have been visiting relatives in town, and returned to their home last Saturday.

A new remedy for biliousness is now on sale at H. J. Dwinell's drug store. It is called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the attack if given as soon as the first indication of the disease appears. Price 25 cents per box. Samples free.

WOLCOTT.

Read Fife's new advertisement. Charles Horner is working for G. T. Allen. Chas. Stoddard has purchased the Gould farm.

A. W. Foster and family were in Montpelier Monday.

C. H. S. Cleveland has purchased the M. H. Clark house.

Raymond Darrab is again connected with Wheeler's livery.

Miss Nellie Clark of Barnet spent Sunday with friends here.

F. E. Wheeler and wife are the guests of friends in Randolph.

C. W. Jones has rented C. E. Haskell's market and gone into the meat business.

Rev. I. P. Booth will preach in the Universalist church next Sunday at 2:30 o'clock.

Scott Farnham of Lyndonville has sold the Duran property to A. E. Phillips, consideration $1000.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smalley of Morrisville and Mrs. Watson of Iowa were recent visitors at C. A. Reed's.

Blanche, daughter of Earl Whittemore, died last Wednesday of tuberculosis. Funeral services were held from the Cong. church on Friday, Rev. O. L. Barnard officiating.

Hiram Raymore and C. V. Wright of Eden were in town Friday of last week. Wright got a "jag on" and figured as somewhat of a nuisance in the court then in session before Justice Raymore. He was called to account Monday before Justice P. L. Scribner and fined $5 and costs amounting to $13.21.

Don't forget that the W. R. C. will hold a Fair and Chicken Pie supper at the G. A. R. Hall on Thursday afternoon and evening Oct. 10th, 1901. A large number of bed and quilt quilts will be sold, together with many fancy articles. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Supper served from 5 to 8 p. m.

NO. WOLCOTT.

L. M. Washburn is failing rapidly.

J. F. Holton is suffering with asthma.

Nelson Reed is to work for A. N. Boynton.

The Ladies meet this week with Mrs. McArthur.

Merton Cochran and wife have moved onto a farm in Cambridge.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Lunt visited their parents here last Friday.

Nelson Baldwin's son is boarding at Nelson Reed's and going to school.

Ernest Upton and family went to Stowe Saturday to visit their parents.

Sadie McArthur has been at work the past week for Mrs. Frank Givens.

Mrs. Noah Boynton is visiting her daughter, Mary Upton, for a few weeks.

L. C. Boynton goes this week to Brockton, Mass., to visit his brother, Fred.

J. F. Holton and wife visited at the home of A. N. Keeler in Hardwick last Wednesday.

Mrs. Nancy Andrews has been stopping with her sister, Mrs. E. D. Franklin, for the past week.

Rev. O. L. Barnard will exchange pulpits next Sunday with Rev. O. M. Boutwell of Hyde Park.

Mrs. McArthur's sister from New York, who has been visiting her for several weeks, returned home today.

Mrs. Doty of Boston, who has been camping at Greenboro of late, was a guest of Mrs. L. H. Silway last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Boynton, in company with some friends from Morrisville, started last Friday for Buffalo, they went via Montreal.

Mrs. Clara Wheeler returned to her home in Cady's Falls last Saturday, after having worked for Mrs. Noah Boynton for the past six months.

The Pastors will hold meetings this week in the school house, commencing Tuesday evening and continuing every evening until Saturday.

L. E. Armstrong and Ernest Andrews closed up the Andrews people job for J. Leonard last Saturday. Monday they began on the Armstrong job for the same party.

EDEN MILLS.

The Dorcas Society meets with Mrs. Ellen Whittemore next Tuesday.

The W. C. T. U. meets at the church at the Mills next Friday afternoon. All interested are invited.

Harry Bickford, who has been in Massachusetts for some time, came home last Wednesday on account of sickness.

If there is anything in signs, we are to have a very open winter, judging from the heavy thunder shower of Sunday evening.

One would not need an "eye for beauty" to see beauty in the mountains and hills clothed in their early autumnal colors.

LOWELL.

Lewis Cox has been quite sick, but is now able to be about again.

The R. C. Society held a three days' fair last week, closing Wednesday evening.

George Curtis has been struggling with the grip, barely escaping pneumonia. Many others are suffering from influenza, which seems almost like an epidemic in town.

George Durivage and wife of Hudson, N. H., are visiting here. George is the eldest son of Rawson Durivage and left this town about 10 years ago, having been here only once since that time.

Quite a number of our young people attended the opening ball at Mt. Norris Hotel, Eden Mills, last Friday night, thereby giving Landford Sylvester a little help to make his new hotel project a success.

The many friends of Alex. H. Parker will be sorry to learn of his death, which occurred at his home in Burlington Sunday, Sept. 22. Mr. Parker had been in poor health the past year. His death resulted from a stroke of paralysis.

Our community was horrified on learning of the death of one of our worthy townsmen, Will L. Kinley, which occurred early Tuesday morning of last week. He had been in poor health a long time, and this, coupled with business troubles and the recent loss of his wife, thought to have produced a fit of temporary insanity, during which the fatal deed was accomplished by cutting his throat. There is not the slightest indication that self destruction had been premeditated. The funeral was held Thursday from the Congregational church, of which the deceased was a member, and of which he was clerk for many years. The church was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends and the mark of esteem, together with the many beautiful floral tributes, went far to show the universal esteem in which the deceased was held. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. F. Goodheart, pastor of the church, and were very impressive. Hazen Post, Mo. 74, G. A. R., of which the deceased was a Past Commander, attended in a body. Mr. Kinley leaves one son.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

Prof. Cornell of Holyoke, Mass., is in town.

Mrs. W. H. Griswold was in Burlington last week.

Mrs. Conant of New Haven was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Thomas recently.

Miss Evelyn Foss of Hyde Park was in town Saturday, the guest of Mrs. Fred Smith.

The W. M. S. will meet with the President, Mrs. John Bean, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

William Curtis and Miss Maria Bradley were united in marriage Thursday forenoon by Rev. Mr. Howard.

Fred Powell, who has been visiting his mother several weeks, expects to return to his home in Waukegan, Wash., this week.

For sprains, swellings and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by Hall & Cheney, Morrisville; Foss & Strong, Hyde Park; M. J. Leach, Wolcott.

THE NEWEST AUTUMN NUMBERS

—IN—

Gent's Hats, Caps, Clothing and Furnishings

Have you seen the new Yoke Suit for young men. It is made on entirely new lines and is conceded by all who have seen them to be the nobbiest garment that has yet been designed for men's wear. It has such a "smart" appearance, is so decidedly different from the ordinary coat that it appeals at once to the stylish dresser. Ready made or made to your measure.

PIKE & BENSON, STOWE, VT.

HOME FROM MARKET!

With a full line of New goods in every department. Call and inspect our stock.

Watch for Prices Later.

S. A. FIFE.

WOLCOTT, Vt.

WATERVILLE.

H. A. Jackson is covering his house with slate.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Culver of Richmond are the guests of Charles Child.

Mrs. Hattie Horner of Cambridge visited friends in town last week.

Mrs. Lucy Tillotson has bought the Stevens house near the school house.

Harris Beale is greatly improving the looks of his place with the paint brush.

Walter Wes